

The Homily and the New Evangelisation

Wednesday 19th September 2012 (10am-4.30pm)

St. Mary's University College
Waldegrave Road Strawberry Hill Twickenham TW1 4SX

In preparation for the Year of Faith (Oct 11th 2012 - Nov 24th 2013) this conference will look at the opportunities and challenges for preaching the New Evangelisation.

Programme

Introduction by The Most Reverend Bernard Longley, Archbishop Of Birmingham & Member of the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization

First Session: 'Homily and Catechesis for the New Evangelisation '
Reverend Dr Dominic Robinson SJ, Heythrop College

Second Session: 'The Homily since the Second Vatican Council'
Reverend Dr Con Foley, Saint John's Seminary, Wonersh.

Third Session: 'Evangelisation at the Margins: Preaching in the Court of the Gentiles'
Reverend Deacon Dr Duncan Macpherson, Saint Mary's University College

Workshops Include:

'Preparing the Sunday Homily'

'Preaching and Lectio Divina'

'Preaching at Infant Baptisms'

'Preaching Techniques that Engage' (Paul Johns, Director of the College of Preachers)

Archbishop Bernard will celebrate Mass at 12 noon

Clergy wishing to concelebrate should bring diocesan vestments

To reserve a place please e-mail Fr Dominic Robinson SJ at dominicrobinson@rcdow.org.uk or complete and return the slip below

Sponsored by "Praying and Preaching the Word"
a project of Mount Street Jesuit Centre in conjunction with the Diocese of Westminster

Name _____ e-mail address _____

Address _____

Cost £15 (lunch available but not included in cost). Please return the slip to Fr Dominic Robinson SJ, 114 Mount Street, London, W1K 3AH. Cheques payable to "Mount Street Jesuit Centre."